

Level 3 Service Sector Insights Gateway

GET YOUR STUDENTS LIFE AND WORK READY

Give your students a big boost with Gateway programmes where all unit standard credits are at Level 3.

Plus, all the units deliver industry relevant skills and knowledge that is valued by employers.

Plus, the units give students a completion certificate, and a 20-credit head start into a related industry New Zealand Certificate or Apprenticeship.

With a comprehensive choice of service sector options, there is bound to be a Level 3 Service Sector Insights Gateway Programme to suit your school and students.

Aotearoa New Zealand's service sectors are a key driver of our economy and offer huge career and vocational education opportunities. Whether your student has a passion for helping people, a desire to delve into logistics, or to one day become their own boss, a Service Sector Insights Gateway Programme is the right first step to help make the move from school into a career.

How it works

Students receive a placement with a participating employer, giving them valuable work and life experience.

They gain Level 3 NCEA credits that can also be used towards a relevant nationally recognised New Zealand Qualification.

They'll be supported all the way by a dedicated Schools Transitions Advisor who works with workplace management to make sure they get an all-round understanding of the sector and gain skills and knowledge from widely used and valued industry unit standards.

Students will be supplied with customised learning resources (where applicable), clear development plans and support from a Schools Transitions Advisor who will keep their school up to date. Students' work will be assessed by ServiceIQ.

Successful completion of any of the Service Sector Insights Gateway options will see students gain at least 20 credits, plus a completion certificate.
