

Great receptionists attract great reviews and more guests

NZ Certificate in Accommodation with a strand in Reception (Level 3)

You don't need to watch 'Hotel Inspector' to know your receptionist's performance sets the scene for how people feel and talk about your establishment. A warm welcome from a well-trained receptionist who makes checking-in a breeze and your guests feel like the most important people in the world, creates a powerful first impression. It's those essential skills, knowledge and attention to detail that attracts more guests, great reviews and ultimately boosts your business.

It's why the NZ Certificate in Accommodation with a strand in Reception (Level 3) helps you guarantee a level of service that helps keep guests coming back and recommending your place to others.

On successful completion, your staff get the satisfaction of gaining great skills and the knowledge they need to do a top job, plus a nationally recognised qualification. This programme is easily completed on the job and at a pace that works for your business.
