How coaching makes great tour coach drivers

Top New Zealand coach company Nimon & Sons Ltd wanted to provide an even better, more enjoyable experience for its cruise ship passenger customers on tour in Hawke's Bay.

Solution: The popular business gives its drivers the opportunity to gain tourism skills and a qualification by training on-job with the New Zealand Certificate in Tourism (Visitor Experience).

Result: New knowledge has taken the successful family-owned business up a few more gears. Nimon & Sons General Manager Pete Patterson says getting the right skills is important for a business involved in serving tourists: "We aim to wow our customers and want every experience to be great when they're on tour with us. All the vital skills are covered in this training."

Programme Features – Skills for success

Here's a summary of what your people can learn to deliver a great visitor experience.

Core skills and knowledge

Choose what's best for your business:

- ▶ How to provide excellent customer service.
- ▶ Recognising and satisfying the needs of your international visitors.
- ▶ Satisfying your visitors' interest in New Zealand's unique culture by gaining an understanding in Māori customs, language and tourism practices.
- ▶ Keeping your visitors safe by knowing how to use health, safety and security practices.
- ▶ Adding value to sales through conversation.
- ▶ Knowing how to deal with visitor complaints.

Visitor Experience

Choose what's best for your business:

- ▶ Help your visitors experience the best New Zealand has to offer by gaining a good knowledge of our tourist destinations.
- ▶ Increase your visitors' enjoyment by taking care of them with a team skilled in working together to deliver a world-class experience.
- ▶ Satisfy your visitor's interest in indigenous New Zealand culture by knowing and being able to explain Māori place names.

Taste success!

Be the toast of tourism's wine and food
visitor experience

New Zealand Certificate in Tourism (Visitor Experience) Level 3

It's not just New Zealand's natural beauty that lures visitors from all over. Our country's outstanding reputation for superb wine, artisan food and craft beer attracts thousands of tourists; gourmet travellers seeking out delicious flavours and a great visitor experience.

The New Zealand Certificate in Tourism (Visitor Experience) Level 3 with a special Unit Standard in wine, food and beverage tasting, recognises your people who have the top skills and depth of knowledge to impress even the most discerning customers at the cellar door, brewery or artisan food shop.

The qualification is focused on reinforcing the special qualities of your product and the unique features of your region. Fascinating facts and surprising stories that give even the most knowledgeable visitors a deeper understanding of what it takes to create fine wine, food, or beer in your part of the world.

As well as pouring the perfect drop, a top quality presentation enriches your customers' tasting experience, and attracts more customers.

Your employees will also develop essential tourism skills and knowledge to help your business achieve its full potential.
