

Get your LCQ online

Get the Licence Controller Qualification (LCQ) online with ServiceIQ

By law, every business or organisation that sells or supplies alcohol must always have a properly qualified person in charge. The prescribed qualification is the Licence Controller Qualification (LCQ), and it must be held by people applying for or renewing their Manager's Certificate in order to demonstrate recent and relevant training as set out in the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act (2012).

Get your NZQA unit standards 4646 & 16705 online with ServiceIQ today. Once you have achieved these, you will be awarded the LCQ and can apply for your Manager's Certificate.

Our LCQ Online Programme ensures that holders meet legal requirements of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act (2012).
